LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The Wildlife Trade Monitoring Network (TRAFFIC) at WWF India Secretariat, New Delhi takes pleasure to convey its deep appreciation and gratitude to Mr Varun Kapoor, IPS, IGP and Director, Police and Radio Training School, Indore for his outstanding presentations to the participants from Odisha Police Department at the Police Headquarters Cuttack on 9 April 2015 at Workshop - "Strengthening Wildlife Law Enforcement and Conservation in India" at Police Headquarters Cuttack, Odisha.. Mr Kapoor's presentation and training skills were extremely well received and turned out to be highly illustrative as per the feedback received from the participants.

It is recorded with deep appreciation Mr Kapoor's personal involvement in improving anti poaching skills of the enforcement officials and motivating them will certainly go a long way in helping the cause of conservation of wildlife in India.

We value his Mr Kapoor's contribution and look forward to his continuing association with efforts of wildlife conservation in India.

Dr Shekhar Kumar Niraj (IFS)
Head TRAFFIC India

The TRAFFIC Division of WWF India carries out research and provides analysis, support and encouragement to efforts aimed to ensure that wildlife trade is not a threat to the conservation of nature in India.
