Sub: - Thank you for taking a session on 'intelligence collection and collation' for Judges and Judicial Officers in the orientation programme organized by WWF - India & Traffic - India on 12-13 July 2014 in Agartala, High Court of Tripura.

Dear Mr. Kapoor,

It was pleasure meeting you and listening to your session during the two days orientation programme in Agartala, Tripura. Your session was well received by the judges and judicial officers. The session was an interesting one, which gave them a perspective on importance of key information, specifically in environmental matters. We surely will be availing your expertise in our future programmes too.

We value your contribution and look forward to keeping in touch with you in our future endeavors.

Kind Regards,
For WWF - for a living planet
