Sir,

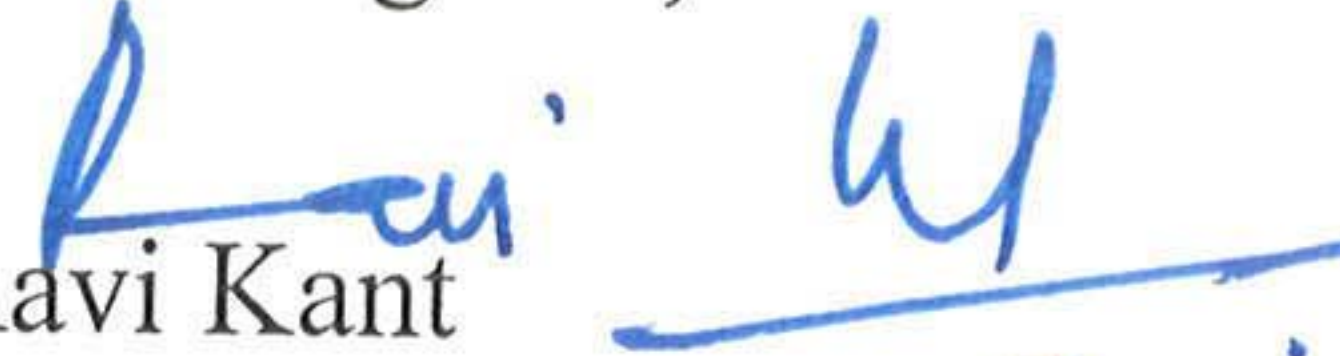

I, on behalf of Shakti Vahini would like to appreciate the initiative you had taken in organizing the three day Seminar on "Anti Human Trafficking" in the PRTS, Indore from 10th to 12th March, 2014. It was a good platform to discuss the issue of human Trafficking and various legal issues associated with it among the Police Officers attended from various parts of Madhya Pradesh.

Attending the Seminar and taking session on "Child Trafficking" on March 11, 2014 by Mr. Subir Roy, Director (Programmes and Projects) was a good experience. This Seminar is an good example of linking source and destination in combating Human Trafficking, the organized crime.

The training was well organized. All the Police Officers participated the programme really made the programme participatory. All the participants were eager to know about the issue and the various aspects on how to combat it. Some of the participants also shared some cases of human trafficking handled by them.

We look forward for future partnership in combating Human Trafficking.

With Regards,
