

World Book of Records: A Unit of Alma Awards UK

Varun Kapoor, IPS (ADG of Police) Enters in World Book of Records

For Conducting 171 Session on Cyber Security

Mr. Varun Kapoor has been certified trainer by United States Department of Justice and Master trainer of the Department for funding International Development (DFID) of UK. He has been also a National Resource Person of the Bureau of Research & Development (BPR&D) New Delhi and National level trainer for World Wildlife Fund (WWF); TRAFFIC-India; FREELANDS and Wildlife Trust of India. He has received the prestigious President's Indian Police Medal for meritorious services in 2008 and nominated for the President's Police Medal for Gallantry in 2009. He has been recipient of numerous national & international awards & recognitions for his outstanding work in field policing; community policing; cyber security; international policing; anti-narcotic work and wildlife conservation.

Mr. Varun Kapoor (Additional Director General of Police, Narcotics) the IPS officer of Indore, Madhya Pradesh and expertise in Cyber Security and Cyber Crime Prevention & Awareness, has been entered in World Book of Records for Conducting 171 Session on Cyber Security and Cyber Crime Prevention & Awareness in which 31975 citizens were secured. All these sessions were conducted voluntarily and were made available free of cost to people. This was informed by Shri Santosh Shukla (Supreme Court, Advocate) of Alma Awards and Dr. Diwakar Sukul of London, UK. Significantly, An Engineer by education having done his BE (Hon.) from National Institute of Technology, Trichy (Tamil Nadu). He Joined Indian Police Service in the year 1991 and Initially posted as CSP & Additional SP in Indore City. Mr. Varun Kapoor Served as SP at Dhar, Sehore & Ratlam districts and Served as DIG Range in Chhatarpur, Ratlam & Ujjain Ranges. Apart from these, he served as IGP at Police Radio Training School, Indore where he has voluntarily undertaken the huge task of spreading cyber security awareness amongst the society and the citizens. Presently he has been serving as Additional Director General of Police and heading the Narcotics Wing of MP Police. He has represented India at the International level too and has served in two United Nations missions – first in Bosnia and then at Georgia. He has also been deputed by Government of India and has served for a long time as Police Advisor at South Africa, Lesotho & Mozambique

Mr. Varun Kapoor has been certified trainer by United States Department of Justice and Master trainer of the Department for funding International Development (DFID) of UK. He has been also a National Resource Person of the Bureau of Research & Development (BPR&D) New Delhi and National level trainer for World Wildlife Fund (WWF); TRAFFIC-India; FREELANDS and Wildlife Trust of India. He has received the prestigious President's Indian Police Medal for meritorious services in 2008 and nominated for the President's Police Medal for Gallantry in 2009. He has been recipient of numerous national & international awards & recognitions for his outstanding work in field policing; community policing; cyber security; international policing; anti-narcotic work and wildlife conservation.

He was congratulated by the Management and the staff of World Book of Records Alma Awards (UK) and Alma Awards (India) on being conducted individually workshops on cyber security and cyber security awareness.

